

CONTEST OF WILSON WILL IS APPEALED TO DISTRICT COURT

APPLICANT WINS DECISION IN COUNTY COURT—JEFF T.
KEMP MADE ADMINIS-TRATOR

Decision in favor of the applicant for probating the will of the late Mrs. Lizzie B. Wilson was rendered by the Judge, W. G. Gillis of the County Court here Friday following a four day hearing before the court.

Attorneys Stribling and Clayton for Contestant H. C. Ledbetter gave notice of an appeal of the case to the District Court. While no date has been set for the hearing it is said that the case will be re-opened during the May term of the District Court of which John Watson is presiding judge. The March term of the District Court begins Monday but the case not be prepared for this term.

The will of Mrs. Lizzie B. Wilson of which Jeff T. Kemp is made executor, was filed for probate in January. Notice of contest alleging unsoundness of mind on the part of deceased and that undue influence was brought to bear in making the will was filed shortly after the will was offered for probate.

Jeff T. Kemp was named temporary administrator of the estate by the court. His bond was fixed at $25,000.

Proceedings in the hearing before the county court developed that Mrs. Wilson had made six former wills. The will offered for probate was made in August 1920. The will was prepared by T. S. Henderson, Sr. and was signed by Mrs. Wilson in the law offices of Henderson, Kidd and Henderson.

Testimony taken before the court developed that the last will of Mrs. Wilson is in marked contrast to the former wills with respect to the disposition of the properties of the estate. The contest was filed by H. C. Ledbetter, brother of Mrs. Wilson.

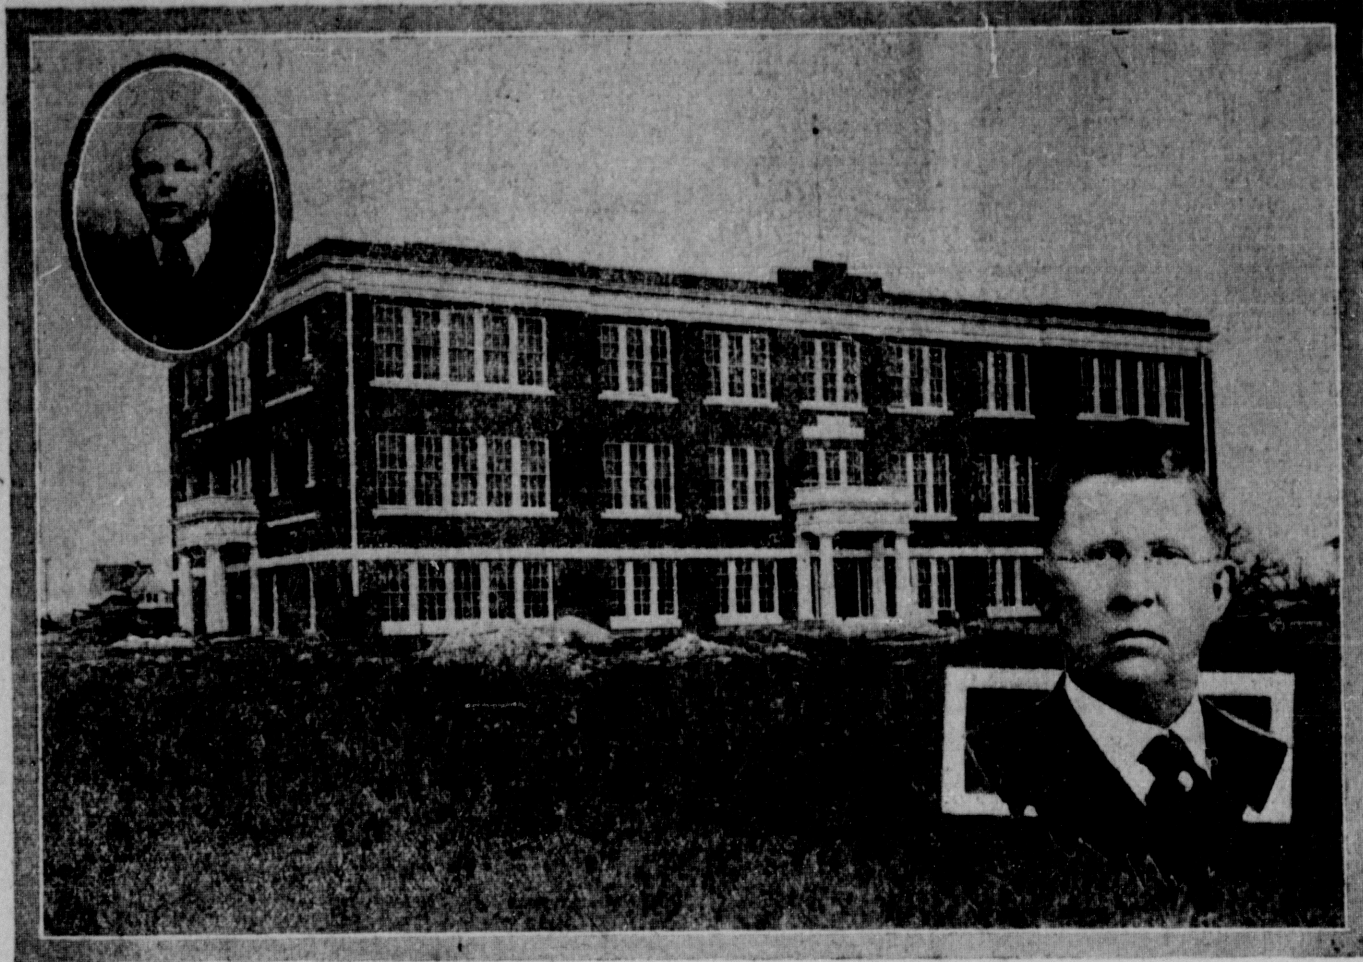

The contest has attracted wide attention and the appeal will be following closely by hundreds throughout the state.

When the court convened at two o'clock Thursday afternoon J. H. Andrews, who was on the witness stand had concluded his testimony. Mr. Andrews under the terms of the will is given 100 acres of land and in the codicil is given half of the goats on the ranch. While the name of J. H. Adams appears in the codicil, it was made known Friday by T. S. Henderson, Sr., in whose handwriting the codicil appears that an error was made and that J. H. Andrews is the person to whom the bequest is made. This disposed of inquiry that had figured in the proceedings for three days and was developed through questions asked by Attorney O. L. Stribling for contestant.

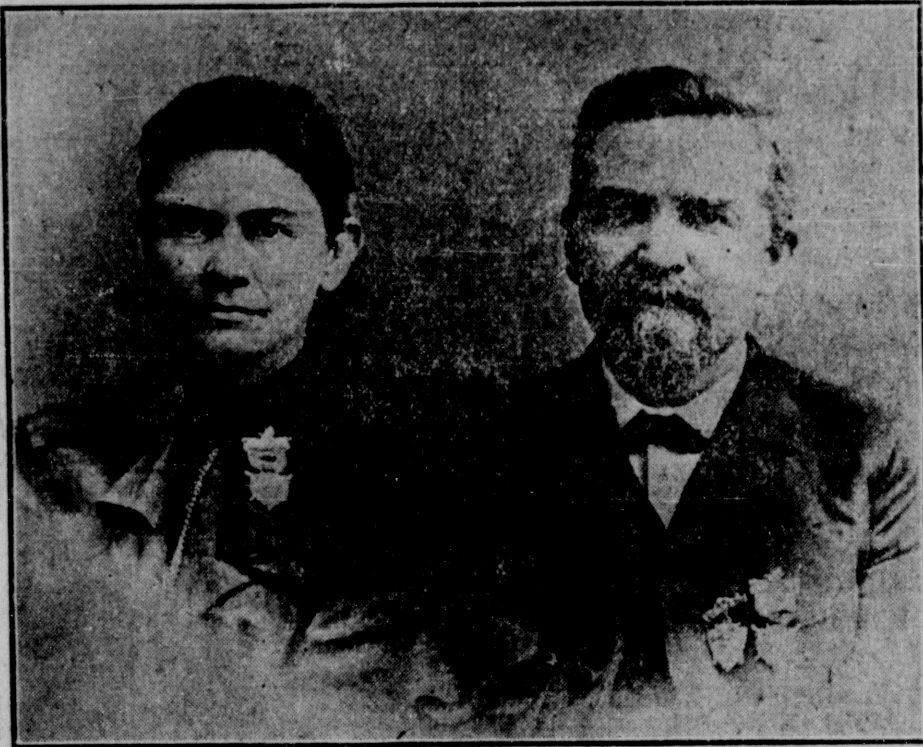

Major R. Lyles, Cameron attorney, was the next witness called to testify. He testified to having talked with Mrs. Wilson a short time before her death; that deceased was sound of mind; that he had known her for more than 40 years. Major Lyles is more than 80 years of age.

J. F. Howard, who has been associated with the Barclay boys in business at various times and who had lived for many years a neighbor to both the Wilson and Ledbetter families, testified that Mrs. Wilson had at one time intended to give the Wilson home place to Goodhue Barclay, but following the break with the Barclay family had changed her mind; that deceased at one time after the death of Mr. Wilson had given W. A. Barclay $20,000 in cash and at another time later she had given him $10,000 in cash; that deceased also said she made a loan of $5,000 to Mr. Barclay and when she requested payment of the money Barclay sent her a check for $1,000 and said that was all he owed her. Witness further testified that deceased had had differences with the Ledbetter family and that she would not let the home place to Ike Ledbetter, her nephew, on that account; that at one time he had talked with Ike Ledbetter about going to the Wilson home to help Mrs. Wilson with the estate; that if he did so, he would get the home place, but that Ledbet-

ERON—ONE OF THE FINEST
HIGH SCHOOL BUILDINGS
IN STATE

Mrs. C. H. Yoe will formally present to the city of Cameron on next Tuesday afternoon the new high school building which has been completed at a cost of approximately $175,000.

The building is a gift to the city of Cameron by Mrs. Yoe, pioneer resident of the city and benefactress to whom all Cameron Tuesday will speak in thanks and appreciation. The building has been under construction for more than a year and is one of the finest high school buildings in the state. It is being presented at a time when the city's educational needs are most pronounced and the philanthropy of Mrs. Yoe is made doubly beneficial because of the timely presentation as well as for the value of the gift.

Mrs. Yoe will formally give the building to the city on Tuesday afternoon, March 8, at which time a great public gathering will be held and a program carried out. At night the city will inspect the school and be entertained in its spacious halls and auditoriums.

Hon. T. S. Henderson will deliver the principal address Tuesday afternoon. Mayor U. S. Hearrell and Dr. A. S. Epperson, president of the board, and others will take part in the exercises.

The occupation of this new building with all its modern equipment will mark the beginning of a new educational era in Cameron. The building has 27 rooms with eight distinct departments. The auditorium will seat 667 people. The building also has one study and one assembly room and will employ more than ten teachers. The building has a gymnasium with all modern equipment and equipment for teaching domestic science and chemistry. Next year a commercial course will be added to the subjects taught.

The building is beautifully finished inside with oak furniture and hardwood floors. The building is strictly fireproof, well lighted, with steam heat with all modern plans as to management.

The old building will be used for the lower grades.

The late C. H. Yoe was a merchant in Cameron and a pioneer resident who as a citizen contributed his full measure to the making of that history associated with the period when Cameron was young. To him as pioneer Cameron will give thanks on next Tuesday for the vision he entertained for his city.

BURLINGTON MAN SHOT BY NEGRO DIES IN CAMERON

WALTER STOECHNER SUCCUMBS TO WOUNDS RECEIVED IN GUN BATTLE FEB. 1.

Walter Stoechner, farmer age 32 years residing near Burlington died in the Cameron Hospital Friday morning, Feb. 25th as a result of gun shot wounds received in a rifle battle February 1 with a negro tenant on the Stoechner farm.

While Mr. Stoechner's condition had been critical since his arrival at the hospital it was thought he would recover.

He is survived by wife and two children, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stoechner and brothers. He born in Travis county in 1889. Burial was made in the cemetery at Burlington Sunday. The Henne & Meyer undertaking parlors in charge of the body.

Stoechner was shot twice through the body with a 30-30 winchester.

Ed Gill, negro is in county jail on a charge of murder having been arrested at Austin three days after the shooting and returned here by Sheriff Blaylock. Gill was found from a shot by Stoechner, after the latter had been shot.

The shooting followed a quarrel in which the negro was asked to pay a sum of money due the owner at that time, preparing to leave the place. The negro is said to have gone short distance to his home and a moment later reappearing with his rifle opened on Stoechner, who was a shot down. Stoechner then drew his gun and wounded the negro, who having been fired at several times by a younger brother of Stoechner, made his escape into the woods. Officers were then summoned and the wounded man brought to the Cameron Hospital.

The negro three days later appeared at Austin and surrendered to the sheriff. Wrapped in an old quilt was his rifle and pistol together with several rounds of ammunition. In a statement made to the sheriff the negro declared he was aided by a white man in escaping from Milam County officers. He took the train at Valley Junction and from there went to Austin.

The death of Mr. Stoechner will be received with wide spread sorrow throughout this section. As a citizen he was highly esteemed. The Herald extends its sympathy to the bereaved family and to the father and mother.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The federal farm loan act was held constitutional Monday by the supreme court. This is the act under which land banks were established to extend loans to farmers.

Millions of dollars in loans to farmers have been held up pending a decision of the court in this case, which was brought about by Charles W. Smith, a stockholder in the Kansas City Title and Trust company, who sought an injunction to restrain that institution from investing its funds in bonds issued by the farm loan banks.

The act was attacked on the ground that congress was without constitutional authority to establish farm loan banks and to exempt their bonds from taxation. Justice Day, who rendered the opinion for the court, said the power of congress to establish banks had in a broad sense been upheld by the supreme court in the days of Chief Justice Marshall.

The court in sustaining federal court decrees dismissing injunction proceedings brought by Mr. Smith, also held that congress had the authority to exempt the bonds of the bank from taxation.

In anticipation of the decision of the court in this case, the house on Saturday postponed until Tuesday a vote on a section of the sundry civil bill authorizing the treasury to purchase $200,000,000 worth of farm loan bonds. The supreme court's decision will permit the banks to go ahead with the sale of their bonds on the market and some congressional leaders do not regard it is necessary to make the proposed $200,000,000 appropriation.

Houston Land Bank to Resume Operations

After many months of involuntary inactivity, the Federal Land Bank of Houston will immediately proceed to conduct its business as before, and the $4,000,000 of farm loan applications on hand when the bank temporarily ceased operations, will be given prompt attention and clearance. The above sum represents Texas applications wholly, and does not include those of other states, which are handled through other federal land banks.

The decision just handed down applies equally to the Joint Stock Land Bank.

C. S. E. Holland, president of the first Texas Joint Stock Land bank of Houston and vice president of the Lumberman's National Bank, on being informed Monday of the decision issued the following statement:

"The constitutionality of the Federal Farm Loan act as to the sale of Federal Land bank and Joint Stock Land bank bonds free from tax as per this decision rendered by the supreme court, is the greatest aid that has been given the farmers since the stagnation in the market of farm products set in.

"It must not be presumed that this money will be immediately available to the farmer, but that it will be made available within the next few months, there is little doubt.

"The first Texas Joint Stock Land bank of Houston will begin to receive applications for loans at once, subject to the sales of their bonds. The actual money will not be put out until arrangements can be made to place the bonds on the market at par.

"Farmers and stockmen will again be able to secure long time loans at a small rate of interest, which privilege has been denied them for the past 14 months, as many trust companies and insurance companies have run the rate of interest up to 9 and 10 per cent and compelled the borrower on terms of five years time.

"It seems appropriate that prosperity week should set in in Houston on the day that Federal Land bank and Joint Stock Land bank are again permitted to receive applications for loans from the farmers of the country. The money thus loaned will soon find its way into commercial channels and all business will begin to pick up on account thereof.

Big Demand for Loans

"Undoubtedly, the news of the decision of the supreme court of the United States in the farm loan act, case is the best news that has been given to the country in many days."

BASKET BALL GAME

Last Friday afternoon the Rosebud basket ball team came to Cameron for a game. Though the Cameron team regrets to admit, it must say that Rosebud was the victor. The score was 22 to 16 in favor of Rosebud. The Cameron players failed to show their former team work. Somehow "Little Bulet" Thompson could not get around so fast and that Bob McLendon missed more goals than ever before, but Cameron can't hope to always win.

Only two men were "knocked out" one was a Rosebud man and the other was Thompson. This, however, did not delay the game very much and playing was resumed in a little while. One of the terrors to Cameron was a long, lean, lanky boy whose nickname was "the Veiled Mystery." This name was given to him by Cameron. Every time he was within throwing distance of the goal he would try for it and he missed it only one time.

Rosebud had her terror, but Cameron had one too and this was Self. He played a fine game and though he did not make any goals he helped to make several. Also Tom Hefley, the captain of the team, would get the ball many times from the Rosebud men by yelling to them to throw him the ball and they thinking it was their own man would throw it and in this way Cameron was enabled to get many goals. One of the features of the game was the cleanness in which it was played. Very few fouls were made, which speaks well of both the Rosebud and Cameron players.

The line-up was:

Rosebud	Position	Cameron
Viha	Forward	McLendon
Coward	Forward	Thompson
Asbury	Center	Ireland
Ocker	Guard	Hefley
Hegar	Guard	Self
Kemp, Brewer	Subs	Mayfield
Reeder.

Those who made goals for Cameron were Thompson and McLendon. This was the last game of the season.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

Last Tuesday morning the grade pupils of Miss Mary Lake Henderson gave a very much appreciated exercise for the benefit of the study hall. There were exhibitions of readings, of all kinds. First there was a song by the Robbins twins. This was very much enjoyed and brought a good round of applause. Then came several plays and these brought much laughter from the students. The study hall wishes that more of the entertainments would be given.

NEWS FROM SHARP COMMUNITY

Edited by Mrs. W. H. Lyon

Sharpe, Feb. 27.—We are now having a typical spring weather, though by time this goes to press, we may be in the throes of a blizzard. However, farmers are planting corn, and a great many have already planted, while others are going to wait a while for fear of a freeze.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phillips, near Tracy, a wee baby boy, on Feb. 23rd.

El Hosea of Tracy was brought over here last week with a dislocated ankle joint. After surgical attention he was feeling all right, though it will be some time before he will be able to be around as usual. He was thrown from a mule, which caused the accident.

County Superintendent Chadwick was here last week in company with the state inspector for rural school, and spent an hour with us looking over our conditions. They seemed pretty well satisfied, and there is no doubt we will receive the aid expected. A great deal has been spent in improving this school by the board of trustees, and no pains has been spared by them to do their part towards obtaining this money from the state. The school is fitted with new seats in some of the rooms, maps, charts, etc., and the best of drinking water is piped to the grounds, fitted with up-to-date drinking fountains. The Sharp people should congratulate themselves on their choice of trustees.

Mr. Goodson, oil man from Copperas Cove, was here the past week.

Mr. Blunt, grocery drummer from Taylor, was here doing the town Friday.

Sharp has at last been put on the map. And it fell to the lot of Luther Reichert to do it. At the show in Cameron during last week, he entered the milk contest and of course won, like Sharp people always do, whether it is sucking milk out of a bottle or something else. We feel very proud of him, because it shows he has the "winning quality" and will come out winner at other things. And this writer wishes to add, that he is not near such a "sucker" as one might suppose.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reichert and children went to Cameron last Friday afternoon to meet Miss Mattie Brinkley, who teaches in Rosebud, and who spent the week end with them. They also attended the Fox Show while there.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Hensorling, of the Randall Lake farm are in receipt of the following announcement of the marriage of their daughter:

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Hensorling announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. Roland Howard Lee, on Sunday, Feb. 20, 1921, Rockdale, Texas; at home, Welborn, Texas.

Mr. Hensorling has lived here long enough for his daughter, Miss Ruth, to be very popular with her circle of friends, all of whom wish her happiness. Mr. Lee is a young business man of Welborn and quite well known here.

Mrs. Hamby of Rockdale is here at Granger is here to be with her mother, Mrs. Voyles.

Mrs. Bolton is the guest of her son. She is moving to Port Arthur.

Jim Byrd returned Sunday from Temple, where he went to visit Mrs. Byrd, who is in the Scott & White hospital. He reports her doing well, and expects to bring her home the end of the week.

Miss Lavinia Lyle was a week end visitor in Cameron, as guest of her friend, Mrs. Burnett.

Mrs. Annie Landers, trained nurse, came down from Waco to visit the family of her brother, Mr. R. J. Herterberg.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wilson of Cameron were here to visit old friends Sunday.

CONSULT YOUR BANKER

If you had followed the practice of consulting your banker before making an investment, you would have been dollars ahead, wouldn't you? Those beautiful engraved stock certificates, certificates of shares of membership with their seals of gold and a bit of ribbon would not be occupying space in the bottom of your trunk or stored away in a corner of your desk. In their place would be something worth the money represented, or else your bank account would be considerably larger.

Opening the "door of opportunity" to you, probably for the last time, is a highly specialized occupation indulged in by a vast army of smooth-talking individuals who make easy money in promoting questionable enterprises, or in selling shares on a commission for 40 to 60 per cent. They are all smooth enough to keep their own money in their pockets. But few, if any, think enough of their own proposition to invest themselves. It is their business to sell to others, then move on to more productive fields.

Had the averaged investor consulted his banker during the past year, many millions of dollars would have been diverted into legitimate and productive fields. There would be less reason to cry, "Money is tight." The money invested in shady propositions in Texas alone would probably be sufficient to construct cotton warehouses in every cotton growing community. In the wild scramble for riches via the speculation route which has taken place in this country since the signing of the armistice, farmers, wage-earners and salaried classes have contributed enough hard-earned money to the promoters and salesmen to properly finance the crop of the country, or to construct good highways throughout the land.

There are enterprises that offer opportunities for investment. There are promoters who have legitimate propositions and offer stock or shares through salesmen to the investing public. These are generally known to your banker. If he is not familiar with that particular proposition he has means at his command to get the facts for you. He, as a rule, is not only willing to do this, but is anxious to protect you and in so doing he is protecting himself. In this case he is your best friend.

Unfortunately there are a few bankers who lend their names to enterprises of personal friendship for some one connected with it, or for other reasons not strictly of a business nature. Sometimes it is done in a moment of enthusiasm over some project which, on the surface appears to have merit and which may help the town. As a rule, however, the average banker looks upon all investments with a cold, calculating eye. It is his business to do it just that way. His training will not permit him to do otherwise. If he wanted to indulge in farming as a side line, he would probably consult a farmer. If you go out of your field into his, consult him.—Farm and Ranch.

DIDN'T THINK HE COULD PLANT CROP

After Taking Tanlac Sampson Says He Can Do As Big Day's Work As Ever

"My health was so poor it looked like I wouldn't be able to plant a crop but since taking Tanlac I can do as big a day's work as I ever could," said A. D. Sampson, a well known farmer of Moray, Kan.

"I was just about laid out altogether, and I had tried all sorts of medicine but nothing helped me. My stomach was in a awful fix, I never wanted to eat much of anything and what I did force down seemed to do more harm than good. Malaria was through my system and at times I had pains all over my body. I was badly constipated, felt bilious and had a mean taste in my mouth nearly all the time. I was subject to terrible headaches and at times was so dizzy

LOCAL MAN—SEE, HEAR AND WALK FOR FIRST TIME IN FIFTEEN YEARS

Christmas Day will have a deep significance in the life of John G. Henry, 1124 Derry St. It will be the first Christmas in fifteen years that he will be able to see, hear and walk. Henry returned to his home here yesterday from Chicago and will celebrate this most joyful Christmas of his life with his wife, who nursed him and provided for him throughout his helplessness, and with Dr. Gustav Becker, of Chicago, the Chiropractic physician who restored to Henry his physical powers snatched from him eighteen years ago by a midnight prowler.

But there is one who will not join with this trio in thanksgiving tomorrow but who will be remembered and missed. That missing one is the little fox terrier which throughout Henry's affliction waited upon him unceasingly. During this last visit of Mr. and Mrs. Henry to Chicago the little dog, left behind with the Henry housekeeper, died of loneliness.

Miracle in Henry's Life

This modern Job, after being invalided for eighteen years and practically helpless for fifteen years, now has a keen sense of both sight and hearing and with the guidance of another hand is for the second time learning to walk. In two more weeks, Dr. Becker states, Henry will have regained the full control and use of his limbs.

The miracle in Henry's life has come eighteen years after a catastrophe to him in his home in Penbrook. In October of 1902 he was awakened by burglars and upon descending to the first floor was struck in the face by an unknown assailant. The force of the blow broke the bones of his nose and face and felled him against a piano, injuring his spine at the waist and at the base of the skull. After regaining consciousness he experienced torturing pains of the forehead and at the base of the skull.

His Devotion to His Wife

Within the next twelve years, as a result of the attack, he successively lost his sight, hearing and use of his limbs. He was repeatedly critically ill with pneumonia, pleurisy and other diseases and during an illness of his wife fell down stairs sixteen times while caring for her needs.

It was in 1917, in Chicago, that Henry made the acquaintance of the man who has since restored to him his lost faculties. While attending a national convention of the Modern Woodmen, where he was seeking financial aid, he was introduced to Dr. Gustav Becker, who examined him and promised a cure.

Henry accepted the offer of Dr. Gustav Becker to treat him without cost and on June 5, 1919, offered himself for adjustment. After the thirteenth treatment the pains in his head disappeared. In November, 1919, he once more saw the light of day and the smiles of his benefactors and his loyal wife; on March 18, 1920, he once more heard the cheery good morning of his wife and on the first of this month he took his first step in fifteen years. He had not seen for six years, nor heard a sound, nor his wife's voice in fourteen years.

Normal Manhood in Sight

Dr. Becker has promised his patient that the latter will be able to work in two weeks and that three months' further treatment, which he will give him beginning next March, will restore him to normal manhood and permit him to take his place in the business and industrial world.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry have been enabled to carry on this long fight for the life and health of the former by a mail order soap business conducted by Mrs. Henry, with the assistance of the Modern Woodmen of America and the professional and financial aid of Dr. Becker.

Upon their return to their home here yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry launched preparations for a sale of soap to enable them to return for the final treatments in Chicago next March.—Evening News, Harrisburg, Penna.

STIRRING ADDRESS IN HOUSE IN REPLY TO THE GOVERNOR

SID CRUMPTON DEFENDS VOTE AGAINST AMENDMENT TO THE DEAN LAW.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 25.—The stirring address in the house today by Sid Crumpton of Bowie answering Governor Neff's recent criticism of the action of the house in killing the Morris bill amending the Dean law was the cause of one of the hottest sessions of the present legislature. The house recently killed the bill by Morris of Medina amending the Dean prohibition law so as to allow convictions on the unsupported testimony of an accomplice or the purchaser of the liquor. This bill was suggested by Governor Neff and after the house had killed it he gave out a statement deploring the action.

A motion to print Mr. Crumpton's address in the Journal was made by West of Bexar. After furious debate the motion carried by a vote of 82 to 30. Sattergood of Carson then moved that the governor's statement as printed in the papers be printed in the Journal. This motion carried by a vote of 110 to 8.

Does Not Mention Governor

Mr. Crumpton made his remarks on a point of personal privilege and although he did not mention the governor nor his criticism he said that he and sixty other members of the house had been classed as standing in the way of legislation of this state. There were 61 affirmative votes to striking out the enacting clause of the Morris bill.

"Permit me to say," he continued, "that as a criminal lawyer I have defended a few charged with the violation of the local option law. In my vote the other day I voted not to oppose the principles of the organic law of the land; I voted to maintain the statutory law of a constitutional body and in doing so I was prompted by the spirit of maintaining the old landmarks that should guide courts and juries in dealing with the life, liberty and property of their fellow men."

No Apologies to Make

Mr. Crumpton called attention of the house to the constitution regarding the equal rights of men and their privileges.

"I voted my convictions and I have no apologies to make," he said, "I voted to maintain and uphold and support the rules of law which guarantee to men their life, liberty and property."

Barry Miller of Dallas, Curtis of Tarrant, Darroch of Mills and West of Bexar, spoke in behalf of the motion, while Thompson of Red River and Morris of Medint opposed the motion to print in the Journal.

Mr. Morris referred to it as a "sparring match" and said that it should be decided in the newspapers and kept out of the journal.

Various members of the house construed the action of the house as tending toward a break between the governor and the legislature.

When asked for a statement concerning the matter, Governor Neff said that "I stand on the correctness of my statement and I have no apologies to make." He referred to the statement deploring the action of the house.

HOUSE FAVORS ADJOURNING SINE DIE ON MARCH 12

Austin, Tex., Feb. 25.—The house is in favor of adjourning sine die on March 12, the close of the regular sixty-day session, according to a resolution adopted late today. Barry Miller of Dallas in a house joint resolution proposed adjournment on that day and the house adopted it by a vote of 75 to 44.

The house also passed to engrossment the senate joint resolution by Senator Page of Bastrop amending the constitution to increase the salaries of the governor and attorney general to $8,000 per year and those of the secretary of state, comptroller and state treasurer to $5,000 per year. Before engrossment, however, the house added amendments proposing to increase the salaries of the legislators to $10.00 for regular sessions of 120 days and $5.00 per day thereafter; also $10.00 per day for all extra sessions. The present regular session is sixty days and the present salary $5.00 per day for the sixty days and $2.00 per day thereafter. The amendment is to be submitted to the people on August 21, 1921.

Powers of the state board of control are reduced in a bill introduced in the house by Satterwhite of Carson. The bill provides the board shall submit the budgets of the departments and institutions to the legislature without recommendations.

Representative Pope of Nueces announced in the house that when the anti-alien land ownership bill by Senator Dudley came up in the house he would propose an amendment making the provisions of the bill more stringent and excluding any alien from acquiring land who has not obtained citizenship papers. This bill is intended to restrict Japanese from acquiring land in Texas and has been passed by the Senate.

LOOK FORWARD!

NOT BACKWARD!

Will you sit and worry about the price of cotton and High Cost of Living while other people are taking action to prepare themselves to meet the demands of Business that is coming? Training is the one thing that makes the difference between the executive and the man in overalls. We are entering a period in which a thorough complete education is more necessary than ever.

Competition is coming back into its own. The man that has the best value to offer, be it goods or service, is the man that will get the order or the position. What special ability can you offer the employer, that will make him give you the job instead of the other fellow?

The next few years will mean to you much or little in accordance with the extent to which you are prepared. With modern methods of business there is no time to train the unskilled in the business office. You must be trained in a modern college, with practical teachers—modern office equipment, when you enter the business world.

In the settling down and adjusting of commercial industries, as they get back on a pre-war efficiency basis, the trained man stays on the payroll, while the unskilled worker is the first to go and finds the least demand for his services. As we do not look for a return of wartime conditions in American business, this relative demand for the trained and untrained worker can be expected to continue. Which class do you want to be in? Which means the greater future to you?

Look ahead! Remain as you are and you will occupy practically the same station in life ten years from now. Uncle Sam did not send untrained soldiers to France; neither is the business man going to hire unskilled help to fight the battles of business competition for him.

We will give you the most thorough business training possible in the shortest possible time and at the least cost, and secure you a good position at the completion of your course.

At Last! A Really Satisfactory Cord Model for Smaller Cars

It's size permits it to run on the same car with fabric equipment—something that oversize cords do not allow.

Thousands of motorists have made the mistake of putting an oversize cord tire on a car equipped with standard size fabric tires. The result is that the oversize tire goes to pieces long before its time, while the disgusted owner finds that throwing the car out of balance has played havoc with the car's mechanism.

Mason Junior Cords eliminate this trouble, extend genuine cord service to every size of tire and make possible a real step forward in tire economy.

OUSLEY SOUNDS CALL TO FARMERS IN DALLAS SPEECH

TELLS BANKERS SOUTH MUST
ABOLISH COTTON SLA-VERY

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 28.—"I am trying to impress the everlasting truth that we are all, individually and collectively, responsible for the unhappy conditions that surround us, for it is as true in industry and commerce, in agriculture and banking, as in politics and spiritual affairs, that no man liveth to himself alone, but that every man is his brother's keeper and that evil of which we complain as well as the good we enjoy, is of our own making. We are responsible as well for that we encourage by neglect as for what we promote by design, and when calamity befalls a community it hurts the innocent and the guilty alike."

These are the words used by Colonel Clarence Ousley, former Assistant United States Secretary of Agriculture, in his addresses to the District Bankers' Association meetings being held in Texas at the present time. Discussing the necessity of cotton acreage reduction, Colonel Ousley stated that the 1920 acreage was greater than that of 1919, and as a consequence an unusually heavy production was thrown upon the congested markets of the world. He stated, that, contrary to general impression, the present cotton situation was due to decreased American buying rather than decreased buying by foreign mills. American mills according to him took 2,000,000 bales less in the first six months of the cotton year 1920 than they did in the corresponding months of 1919. Foreign buyers took only 800,000 bales less this year than they did last.

Ousley predicts that purchases will be greater in the next six months, but he calls attention to the decreased buying power of the Nation saying that 10,000,000 people are without the buying power they had a year ago; that 35,000,000 agricultural people are affected, and that there are three and a half million industrial laborers out of work. He says that the only solution is to work and save. In view of the fact that there are 2,000,000 bales of cotton unsold in Texas, Ousley stressed very strongly the reduction of acreage this year as a matter of paramount importance.

This year's crop is not our only problem, however, according to him, and he says, "It remains for us to take out insurance against these recurring cotton calamities by the abolition of cotton slavery."

"Coming back to things concrete, I submit finally that as a people we have reached the limit of waste and injustice in our system of marketing farm products. This is an old story but at every telling by those who suffer the tone becomes more insistent, and of late there is a note of resolution that will not be denied. The farmers of the United States are in the mood of men who have long endured the wrong of seeing the fruits of their labor enhance in value many times over between the farmer and the retail store. Last fall 68 cotton buyers profited, if they did not profiteer, in handling the products of one Texas town which the market for cotton of superior staple which mills were eager to obtain. If the producers were not exceptions to the rule in the cotton belt, not one in ten knew that his cotton was worth a premium of ten to twenty dollars a bale.

"The first week in February 1920, choice heavy steers sold in the Chicago market at $17.00 and the first week in February 1921, at $10.00; yet according to figures quoted by Mr. Theodore Price, the New York economist and financier, the first week in February 1920, family beef sold wholesale at 25c and the first week in February, 1921 at 26c. Cabbage sold a few weeks ago or were offered, in the Rio Grande Valley at $10.00 a ton and consumers in Dallas at the same time were paying at the rate of $110.00 a ton. A few days ago I ate some salted peanuts packed in Pennsylvania, grown probably in Virginia, that sold here at 75c a pound, for which the farmer received probably not more than 5c a pound. When such disparities are the rule it is time for producers and consumers to join in a revolution against commercial waste.

"For the first time in the period of observation the farmers of the cotton belt are now undertaking to set up co-operative marketing organizations, fashioned upon plans that have been practiced with success by California farmers for several years and have brought prosperity not only to the producers but to the legitimate commerce of their regions. The Farm Bureau Federation of this State is about to undertake the co-operative marketing of a million bales of cotton. They intend to employ skilled and experienced cotton merchandising experts. They do not contemplate monopoly control; they seek only to escape from waste and graft and the 'autumnal dip' in prices by distributing sales over twelve months instead of crowding them into three months.

"I submit that the sale of cotton without profit by an organization of growers under skilled and experienced management is as truly as if it were owned by a cotton merchant, and is entitled to the same financial accommodation by Member Banks and Reserve Banks that it obtains when it is handled by merchants for profit. There are indications that the financial authorities at Washington are not inclined so to hold, but there is reason to believe that they will respect wishes of cotton belt bankers. Today's papers bring reports of a promising undertaking by cotton farmers and bankers of Mississippi to make direct exports. I appeal to the organized bankers of Texas to lend their financial wisdom to the organized farmers of Texas, and I venture to suggest that this group do not adjourn without adopting a formal resolution requesting the agricultural committee or a special committee of the Texas Bankers Association to confer with the Texas Farm Bureau Federation for the purpose of working out plans of financing conformable to the reasonable rules of the Federal Reserve Board.

"As fair men you will not be offended if I remind you that the greater part of the wealth represented by the assets and deposits of the banks, and by the possessions of the cities and towns of these agricultural regions, came from the soil. It is coined from the sweat of men, women and children in the cotton fields. They are your neighbors and friends. Some of you have shared their hard experience. You know that while they suffer in considerable degree from unwise agricultural practice, they are in even greater degree, the victims of unjust commercial practice.

"By Farm Bureau plans of co-operative marketing they are trying to escape from unjust commercial practice and to pursue wiser agricultural practice. I am not surprised at the impatience of farmers with the commercial waste of their products; I am surprised that they have been patient so long. The present undertaking is the sanest I have ever observed. If it is defeated I fear the consequence of the disappointment of their worthy purpose. I believe I know something of the working of the group or class mind smarting under the sense of wrong. If the producers of the United States do not find relief under the leadership and by the sound methods of the Farm Bureau, they will record an exception in human history if they do not under other leadership invoke the powers of government for class advantage.

"The exploited farmers of North Dakota, turning in anger upon their commercial enemies, seized the State. They punished their enemies but they punished their friends and themselves as well, by erecting a socialized commonwealth which despises all welfare except agricultural welfare. No agricultural State is immune from the politic-economic disease which has blighted North Dakota. It is sweeping even now in this direction. Let us beware. The cotton and credit system practiced in the South for fifty-five years has not only exploited the soil but has exploited the men who till the soil, and we cannot permit it to continue without inviting disaster. "Bankers of Texas, rise up from your places as conservators of the present credit and marketing system and take your places as financial leaders in constructing a wise credit and marketing system, to the end that a prosperous, progressive and contented agriculture may fortify and perpetuate a government of property rights and individualism against the oncoming crusade of class rule and mass tyranny."

SURPLUS COTTON IS REAL MENACE TO THE FARMER

PUT ACREAGE AND PRODUCTION
ADVISE OF LOCAL COTTON
CLASSER

The past few years the Southern Cotton Farmer has been led to believe there was not enough cotton to clothe the world. Aided by high prices as a consequence of abnormal conditions during the world war, the cotton producer planted the greater portion of his land in cotton, neglecting to provide the necessary feed stuff to supply his work stock and to feed himself. At the prevailing high prices at the time most farmers believed they could raise cotton and buy feed and make money by so doing. This may have been true at certain time, but at the same time, it was causing more surplus cotton to pile up and the food stuff to diminish, so today we find cotton stored at every available place unsold and prices offered for same, low, but on the other hand, we find no surplus of food and feed stuff, with prices above the average and the demand good. In my judgment, the cotton farmer should reverse this condition which I think he is a position to do. The following report was compiled by the cotton acreage committee of the Southern Cotton Conference held in Memphis, Tennessee, December 7-8, 1920:

(Bales)

The ten year average amount of American cotton on hand unspun, at the beginning of each fiscal year was about 1,200,000
At August, 1919, according to Hester, unspun American cotton 6,844,000
At August 1, 1920, beginning present fiscal year, according to Hester, unspun American cotton 6,086,000
The greatest consumption of all kinds of cotton ever known in a single year 21,000,000
The greatest consumption

Warning. Unless you see the name "Bayer" on package or on tablets you are not getting genuine Aspirin prescribed by physicians for twenty-one years and proved safe by millions. Take Aspirin only as told in the Bayer package for colds, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, sarache, toothache, lumbago and for pain. Handy tin boxes of twelve Bayer Tablets of Aspirin cost few cents. of American cotton any one year ever known 15,000,000
Ten-year average consumption American cotton prior to the Great War 13,000,000
Ten-year average consumption of all kinds of cotton including American, prior to the Great War 17,500,000
Consumption of all kinds of cotton, 1919-'20, U. S. Census figures 18,181,000
American crop of 13,000,000 this year indicates a world supply of all kinds of cotton, including American of 29,000,000
Probably amount of American cotton unspun July 31, 1921, now indicated 9,000,000
(Or 3,000,000 bales larger than any amount ever carried over before.)
The world carry-over may reach a total of, or may exceed 13,000,000
The world during the present fiscal year is not likely to consume more than 15,000,000
There is now enough cotton in the world unspun, to last approximately two years.

According to these figures which no one has any reason to doubt, it clearly shows we have created a condition which there is only one way to remedy, and that is to reduce the acreage planted in cotton. Not simply by reducing a small bit but reduce to where the reduction will wipe out this large surplus to a degree of creating a keen demand. Take this report of the acreage committee of the Southern Cotton Conference and study it closely and see if you can't come to the conclusion that it is to the farmers' interest to raise half the amount of cotton this year and raise more of the necessities of life. Some say that cotton is the only product that pays debts, I think this year this has been proved not to be the case. Put your acreage in sufficient amounts to meet all your demands for feed for your stock and raise all the meat and vegetables, etc., it will take to run your place the year round and if you have only half the amount of cotton you ordinarily produce, there will be more clear profit than if the acreage had been planted as heretofore.

Body of Service Car Driver Found; Car Burned

The body of Alex Lind, the slain taxi driver whose car found burned about a mile from Goliad Sunday morning, near the banks of San Antonio, was found in a clump of bushes near the scene early Tuesday.

H. H. Strum and family, who were reported missing from Houston, have been located in Victoria and according to Mr. Strum's statement he knew nothing of the crime until Monday morning. His statement implicates an unidentified man whom, he says, entered Lind's car at a farm house a few miles out from Victoria.

Strum's Statement.

According to the statement made at Victoria Monday morning by H. H. Strum of Houston, his car broke down on the way to his brother's in Germantown, and that after having phoned his brother to come and get him, Alex Lind of Victoria drove up and asked if he was the man that phoned. He told Lind "no." According to Strum's statement, a man stepped up and said he was the one, got in the car with Lind and drove away, Lind at the wheel.

The bend of the Colette Creek, where the body of Alex Lind was found Monday morning in Reeves thicket, is about 10 miles from Victoria, on the Goliad road. The body was in a gully about 150 yards from the road and was covered with leaves, being stripped of all clothing and with the brains crushed out, apparently by a blunt instrument. About six miles from Victoria on the Goliad road, in front of Alfred R. Korth's residence, evidence of a struggle was found and authorities believe Lind was killed there and the body carried on the creek, where it was hidden.

Burned Car Found

The crime first came to light Sunday morning when passersby on the Colette river road from Goliad to Victoria came upon a burned Buick car, which had been abandoned after an apparent attempt at destruction by fire. Clothes were found on the river bank near the car; two overcoats of a drab color such as is worn in the army, one coat of gray color and a cuff off a shirt, the cuff having been soaked in blood. A trail was made toward the river which has led the authorities to believe that a body was probably thrown into the stream, which they think may be found at a bend some three miles below.

Robbery Believed Motive.

The murder of Alex Lind is thought to have been prompted by the motive of robbery, it is said, as Lind is known to have had between $600 and $700 on his person when he left town Saturday night for the farm of Herman Goldman, who lives about two miles and a half from Victoria on the Goliad road, from where the Goldman daughter had phoned him for a service car.

Developments to Come Fast

The story of the killing and robbery coming from Goliad Sunday afternoon developed thick and fast Monday, when first the nude body of the chauffeur of the sent car, Alex Lind, of Victoria, was found in a bend of the Colette river and the family of H. H. Strum, who formerly lived at 1717 Terry street, Houston, was found to be missing Saturday morning at an early hour when they are known to have left Houston, presumably for Victoria. At a late hour Monday the family is said to be near Victoria, safe and sound. According

DISCIPLES OF SOCRATES

Last Thursday afternoon the Disciples of Socrates met in regular session. The president, Joyce Cox, made a short talk on the progress of the club as a whole.

A debate followed: "Resolved, That California is not justified in her stand on the Chinese and Japanese Question." Affirmative, Leonard Mewhinney and Hubert Mewhinney; Negative, Robert Mayfield and Willard Keith.

After quite a while of discussion the negative won. Then a committee was appointed to select a place for a party that is to be given to the Girls' Club. Motion was made and seconded that the club should send their greeting to their fellow Disciple, Mr. Lee Howell, who was injured a few days ago. Alva Howell was appointed to present the greetings. The club then adjourned.

BASKET BALL GAME

Last Wednesday afternoon the basket ball team went to Lott to play the town team. The players arrived at 5:30 and then they ate supper. At eight o'clock the game started. The Lott team was too heavy for Cameron but they played a tight game for the first half. After this the players for Cameron could not go back into the game as strong as they went in because one of the best players had been injured. But they fought and continued to fight until the game ended. At last Lott piled up four more scores on Cameron and continued to hold them until the end. The score was 18 to 14 in favor of Lott. Cameron's players are: McLendon, Thompson, Ireland, Self, Mayfield and Hefley (Capt.). This is the first game that Cam-Hi has lost.

MR. KIDD MAKES SPEECH TO STUDY HALL

Last Tuesday morning Mr. Kidd came before the study hall and made a few statements concerning George Washington's Birthday and how it should be celebrated. He said that not only should one just get out of working but to also think of what such a great man did for our country and that we ought to follow his example. Mr. Kidd also stated that Americanism was being taught in the schools and he said that Americanism consisted of Honesty, Fair Play and honest day's work and religious life. He said that if anyone had these he was a full fledged American. Any one that did an honest day's work was worth money and that was the business which the school children came to school and if they did not do an honest day's work they ought not to be in school. After Mr. Kidd was through the pupils sang "America" and classes were resumed as usual.

The Girls' Club did not meet in regular session last Thursday but a meeting of the cabinet to discuss the matters for the coming quarter. Also the new officers made their talks and a good meeting was had.

Miss Irene Moody was a visitor in Cam-Hi last Monday.

It is a powerful and scientific combination of sulphur and other healing agents for the relief and cure of diseases of the skin. It is especially effective in the ITCHING VARIETIES; giving instant relief from the itching and smarting sensations and by its germ-destroying properties it exterminates the microbe which is the cause of the eruption, thus curing the disease completely.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur Compound is used in all cases of Eczema, Tetter, Barber's Itch, Psoriasis, Herpes, Rash, Oak and Ivy Poisoning; also for relieving the annoyance caused by chiggers and mosquito bites.

In the treatment of ECZEMA—the most painful and obstinate of all skin diseases—it is one of the most successful remedies known.

Billie Clark

Mr. Billie Clark may be said to be one of the most popular boys in Cam-Hi. He is an athlete and is usually a winner. In a recent contest between the classes he was one of the "heroes" of the Senior Class.

He is also noted as a violin player. When music is mentioned Billie is nearly always mentioned in connection. Cam-Hi is very proud of him and will be sorry when he leaves to take up his work, whatever it may be.

Last Tuesday afternoon Mr. Kidd let the pupils of Cam-Hi have a half holiday to celebrate George Washington's Birthday. The pupils were very glad and they spent the day having a good time. Mr. Kidd also announced that a little time would be lost in moving into the new school building next week and that he would let them off for one day.

MILAM COUNTY INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET

March 25, 1921, Cameron, Texas

The Interscholastic Meet for Milam county will be held in Cameron, March 25. All schools in the county should take part. Be prepared to spell, recite, enter races, games, etc. Announcement will be made soon just what will be offered. Come, take part, bring the pupils, and have a helpful time.

Sincerely,
L. H. KIDD.

The above announcement will be received with much anticipation because the time that was had last year will be remembered as a time "When all good fellows get together." All sorts of athletic events will take place and a good time is assured. Not only will there be athletic events but spelling contests, recitations and declamations. Cam-Hi wants to take first place this year and she is preparing for the event with many hopes.

$60 BANK CLERK IS MISSING WITH $772,000 IN BONDS

BIG REWARD IS OFFERED FOR CAPTURE OF THE YOUTH

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 25.—he police of the nation tonight were on the outlook for William Dalton, 17 year old, $60 a month bank clerk whose alleged theft of $772,000 worth of Liberty bonds yesterday from the Great Northern Trust Company was made known by the bank officials today.

Although convinced that Dalton was hiding somewhere in the city, the police department telegraphed a description of the boy all over the country with information that $1,000 would be paid for his arrest and $25,000 for the recovery of the bonds.

Dalton is believed to have secreted the bonds—all in large denominations—about his person when he went out to lunch yesterday. He had been sorting them in a cage.

The theft was the second in this district recently in which a youthful bank clerk figured. The other was at Ottawa, Ill., when a 19 year old clerk named Cary, who received $90 a month, attempted to steal nearly $200,000 but was called and the money recovered. This case started an attack by Senator Dial of South Carolina on Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, the senator taking exception to a statement the judge made from the bench that bank officials were partly responsible for the theft because they underpaid clerks who were in responsible positions.

Dalton was known in his neighborhood as a quiet, home loving, church going boy whose chief ambition was to become successful in business, so that he could provide comforts for his aged, widowed mother, who was part dependent upon him.

Spring Time Is Saving Time

"In the spring of Life prepare for the winter of old age."

Such is the good counsel that each father and mother, who have weathered Life's storms and sunshine alike, should give to their offspring. Admonish your son and daughter to be Thrifty, to Economize without self-denial, and to learn the real value of every dollar saved as it pertains to the future.

There is likewise a lesson for the present day young woman and young man to learn. There may come a time when they will wish that they had saved some of the money that they now light-heartedly lavish on needless things.

Now is the time to save so that when the winter of old age rolls around there will be no necessity of added burdens through the tearing worries of financial troubles.

THORNDALE LAYS PLANS FOR CLUB

COMMERCIAL BODY OBJECT OF
MEETING HELD MONDAY NIGHT

The largest community gathering held in Thorndale since our boys returned from overseas met at the American Legion rooms Monday night for the purpose of formulating plans for some definite kind of community organization.

Much interest was evinced by the large attendance which included more than 50 women and fully 100 farmers.

Secretary Drake, of the Rockdale Chamber of Commerce, with several Rockdale boosters, were on hand and made interesting talks regarding community co-operation which were well received. Sam Clement, W. B. Elliott and Im. Rudi of Thorndale, H. H. Camp of San Gabriel and E. A. Camp of Rockdale stressed the necessity of community co-operation in Thorndale for the advancement of this section.

A committee composed of W. B. Elliott, Sam Clement, Chas. Saller, Im. Rudi and H. H. Campe was elected to investigate the workings of other commercial organizations in other towns, and to formulate a set of rules and regulations for the conduct of the proposed organization in Thorndale and call a later meeting at which time a permanent organization will be effected.

Thorndale's 24 piece band dispensed an excellent brand of music during the evening much to the gratification and edification of the large audience assembled.

That the farmers are interested in the movement for a community organization in Thorndale was evidenced Monday night by the active interest they displayed in the meeting, and by their presence.

More than 50 ladies present at the meeting Monday night shows that the ladies of the Thorndale community are thoroughly alive to the benefits that will accrue to the community through a good organization.

Much favorable comment has been heard on the plan followed at the meeting Monday night regarding the plan of forming a permanent organization. The committee plan of investigation first is generally favored and unless unforeseen incidents happen Thorndale will soon have an active community organization that we will be proud to be a member of, and in which we can each put our shoulder to the wheel and pull for this section as never before.—Thorndale Champion.

ISAACS OIL WELL HAS STREAK OF BAD LUCK AND HOLE IS BRIDGED

Quebedeaux No. 3 Also Having Trouble—Both Hope to Remove Trouble

With the eight-inch casing set down to about 580 feet and past the cap rock and in the oil sand about two feet the Isaacs No. 1, Hohenstein & Smith, drilling for Rogers, Texas, owners, ran into a streak of hard luck when the hole bridged some distance below the bottom of the eight-inch casing. The cave-in is supposed to have been caused by seepage water after the continued slow rains of Friday and Saturday. It is reported from this well that the drillers will set in six-inch inside the eight-inch casing, and probably drill down through the smaller casing. The well was doing fine and apparently getting better right along after coming in last Thursday morning until the cave-in came.

The drillers at the Quebedeaux No. 3, Cole & Wilson drilling, are having their measure of trouble similar to the Isaacs No. 1, the Quebedeaux caved in at about 35 feet above the tools and Mr. Wilson expects to get rid of the sludge above the tools some time this week, and be able to grapple the string. The broken cable was caught and removed last week. The hole has a very strong gas pressure, a reliable report to this paper stating that when a match is flung into the hole the gas burst out with an explosion and burns up several feet above the opening.—Rockdale Reporter.

GLASS OF SALTS

CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritates the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Edwin Denby Chosen As Navy Secretary; Selection Is a Surprise

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 22.—President-elect Harding completed his cabinets late Tuesday by a virtual selection of Edwin Denby of Detroit, Mich., as secretary of the navy. The choice was the first big surprise among the cabinet selections, Mr. Denby's name having never appeared in newspaper speculations.

He is an attorney and a former member of congress and has served as an enlisted man in war time in both the navy and marine corps.

It is understood a formal tender and acceptance are yet to be exchanged but Mr. Denby is regarded by those close to Mr. Harding as practically certain to take the place.

There were also growing indications Tuesday that the virtual selections of Herbert Hoover of California to be secretary of commerce and James J. Davis of Pennsylvania to be secretary of labor, soon would be definitely fixed, putting the complete cabinet in its final form.

Dark Horse Appears

Mr. Denby, who was drawn into the cabinet situations as a dark horse after former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois declined to be considered for the navy portfolio, is 50 years old and has an intimate knowledge of Far Eastern affairs in addition to his naval activities. He went to China in 1885 with his father, who served there as an American minister, and later he spent ten years in the Chinese maritime customs service.

Returning to the United States in 1897, Mr. Denby served as a gunner's mate in the American navy during the war with Spain, and at the age of 47 was a sergeant in the marine corps during the world war. He was a representative in the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth and Sixty-first congresses, making a particular study of naval affairs as a member of the naval committee.

Slate Believed Filled

Tentative offer of the portfolio of commerce is understood to have been made to Mr. Hoover, and the general expectation here is that the former food administrator will accept.

Mr. Davis, a former steel worker and now a banker, is to be secretary of labor of the cabinet slate goes through as it now stands.

It became known that all of the seven cabinet selections previously regarded as virtually certain had been finally put into the class of certainties. Two of these, Charles E. Hughes of New York, for secretary of state, and Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio for attorney general, have been announced by Mr. Harding himself. The others are Will H. Hays of Indiana, for postmaster general and John W. Weeks of Massachusetts for secretary of war; Andrew Mellon of Pennsylvania for secretary of the treasury; Henry Wallace of Iowa for secretary of agriculture, and A. B. Fall of New Mexico for secretary of the interior.

HOUSEWORK IS BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Cameron women. Read what Mrs. Martha Moore, E. 2nd Street, Cameron, says: "For a great many years Doan's Kidney Pills have been my standard medicine for kidney complaint. I have taken Doan's when my back and sides have been so lame and sore that I couldn't do my housework. When my kidneys were irregular, I would get dizzy spells when stooping that just blinded me. That condition made me nervous. I felt out of sorts. When I had attacks of that kind, I took Doan's Kidney Pills and about one box of them strengthened my kidneys and restored by to good health. I very gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone."

HOOVER'S POLICES O. K. WITH HARDING; ACCEPTS POSITION

PRESIDENT-ELECT SEES NOTHING UNUSUAL IN CASE EXCEPT PUBLICITY

St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 25.—President-elect Harding's selection of Herbert Hoover to be secretary of commerce in the coming administration finally was confirmed by Mr. Harding Friday after a series of developments that at one time seemed likely to lead to cancellation of the appointment.

Mr. Harding announced that he had found himself in "perfect accord" with the policies urged by Mr. Hoover as a condition of his entering the cabinet and that the entire incident had been closed with a definite acceptance from the former food administrator.

Agriculture Secretary

At the same time the president-elect virtually confirmed also the selection of Henry Wallace of Iowa to be secretary of agriculture. The selection of Mr. Wallace has been well known for some time, although previously Mr. Harding had declined to discuss it.

Mr. Harding broke his silence regarding Mr. Hoover after repeated efforts had been made without result to secure confirmation of the statement issued by the former food administrator in New York Thursday night. No formal statement was issued here, Mr. Harding simply saying that the whole question had been closed satisfactorily.

Perfect Accord

Asked about the condition laid down by Mr. Hoover, which included in disbursement by Mr. Harding of a definite policy for reorganization of the commerce department, the president-elect replied, "we are in perfect accord as to what the department ought to be made. I wouldn't want Mr. Hoover or any other secretary to take a department unless he intended to do things with it."

He added that he saw nothing out of the ordinary about the case except the publicity given it. Every other prospective cabinet appointee, he said, had discussed with him the matter of permanent department policies.

"Has any other laid down stipulations as Mr. Hoover has," he was asked.

Not "Stipulations."

"I don't like the form of your question," was the reply. "I wouldn't call them stipulations."

In the course of his comment Mr. Harding also expressed surprise that Mr. Hoover had made a statement on the subject in New York Thursday night. The President-elect said he had intended to announce the appointment here Friday, but that his prospective secretary had acted entirely within his privileges in taking the initiative.

The reference Mr. Wallace's appointment came in reply to a chance question relative to an article by the Iowa editor recently published, on pol-

SANTA FE MAN IS SHOT IN LUBBOCK

UNABLE TO OPEN OFFICE SAFE
TELEGRAPHER IS SHOT BY BANDITS

Lubbock, Tex., Feb. 25.—J. Edgar Craft, aged 22, telegraph operator at the local Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger station, was shot and instantly killed by two bankits at 4 o'clock this morning. He did not know the combination to the safe and was shot down after repeatedly telling the outlaws that he was unable to comply with their demands to open the strong box. Express Agent Pinkerton and Deputy Sheriff Murphy, who were in the station were forced to hold up their hands and witness the shooting. Scouting parties are scouring the country for the bandits and feeling is running high.

Thief Gets Rich In Oil Strike; Returns Diamonds

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 24.—Three thousand dollars worth of diamonds stolen from a woman customer of the Gross National bank here a year ago while she was examining the contents of her safety deposit box, were returned to the bank through the mails Thursday. Accompanying the box in which the diamonds were contained, was an unsigned letter, which read: "I used three, made a hit in oil. You can have these back." The letter further explained that "next month it will be nearly a year since I took a package from two ladies who were digging in one of your safety deposit boxes," and stated, "I have made mine in oil."

"I still have three of the diamonds that were in the package, but will send them back later."

The woman had never missed the diamonds, as she had been away on a trip and had not opened her box. She identified them today, but bank officials declined to make her name public.

He might pursue as secretary of agriculture.

"Unless there shall be some unlooked for development," was Mr. Harding's only comment. "I have a strong suspicion that Mr. Wallace will be serving in that capacity."

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results.
